

...has become a splendid adult and is walking alongside me today.

Thank you very much...!

Dress

Casual

Dressing up means something like a suit or a uniform.

Something to show off your maturity.

And dressing casually means to relax and wear something normal.

Something rough and rebellious.

Combine those two things together well, and fashion is born.

But you can see that that style is way too casual,

so we switch in elements of dressing up.

Casual

For example, you were wearing a parka with faded denims and a pair of sneakers when we first started.

A complete and totally ordinary style, right?

Yeah...

If you want to push it even further into dressing up, try putting on a pair of tight denim...

Ah, this is starting to look cool.

Take off the hoodie, and put on something more formal like a tailored jacket.

That's plenty enough to start with.

because
what you're
wearing
really suits
you,
onii-chan.

These
jeans,
you
know...

...yeah.

Ugh...

You
can see
that for
yourself
too,
right?

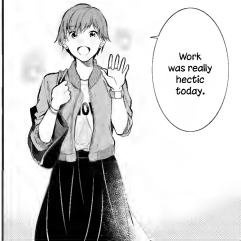

one
from
UNIQLO,
and
they are really
cheap.
It's a great pair
of jeans.

#08 END

Let's meet again
next volume!

Afterword

To start off,
I would like to
confess that
I have no knowledge of
men's fashion.

Thank you for reading this volume of Fuku
wo Kira nara
Konna Fui ni!

Hello
everyone,
my name
is Shimano
Yui

The reaction
that our main
character-
Yusuke makes is new and
unfitted

In short,
I'm in charge of character
interaction

The work
of this
manga is
balanced
between
3 people

I was a high school girl who'd
rather spend
my sock money
on manga.

All of my socks are torn...

Why are you wearing
your Dad's
socks?

I never really paid
much attention to what
I wear
myself

Hey,
wait a
minute...
